CALL FOR PAPERS:

The Scottish Centre for China Research is pleased to announce the Annual Conference of the British Association for Chinese Studies (BACS), to be held at the University of Glasgow from 7 to 9 September, 2017.

The BACS Annual Conference is open to BACS members and non-members alike, and we welcome participants from all countries.

Panels and individual papers are invited across the full range of disciplines within the humanities and social sciences on themes and issues in Chinese Studies and relating to the Greater China region.

SUBMISSION OF ABSTRACTS:

Panel proposals should include: names, affiliations and contact details (email addresses) of all proposed presenters and proposed panel chair and/or discussant, where applicable; titles of individual papers; and an abstract for each paper (max 250 words).

Proposals for individual papers should include: name, affiliation and contact details (email address), title of paper and abstract of max 250 words. Individual papers will be assigned to panels by the organising committee.

Abstracts for panels and individual papers should be submitted by 18th April 2017 to: bacs2017@glasgow.ac.uk.

Panels and papers will be selected by the organising committee, and notification of acceptance will be made by 30 May 2017.

Abstracts from past conferences are available at: <http://bacsuk.org.uk/conferences>.

The British Association for Chinese Studies has an online peer-reviewed journal (JBACS) and presenters are invited to submit their papers for consideration by the journal editors following the meeting. The journal website may be viewed here: <http://bacsuk.org.uk/journal>.
