

BACS Taiwan Huayu Enrichment Scholarship Frequently Asked Questions 2024

Eligibility

Q: Who is eligible to apply?

A: Those who are over 18 years of age, hold a full UK passport but are not currently studying Mandarin in Taiwan during the scholarship application period; and do not hold or have not received in the past an HES or Taiwan scholarship. Anybody studying on a Mandarin course in Taiwan, whether at an officially recognised institution or not, during the scholarship application period will not be eligible to apply for the HES. However, they would be considered eligible to apply for the scholarship if their studies in Taiwan had ended before the official start of the application period. The application period runs from 1st February to 31st March each year, so applicants must not be engaged in study at a Taiwanese institution at any point during those two months to be eligible for the HES. In addition, those who have ever sought a degree from a university or college in Taiwan are ineligible to apply.

Q: Can I apply if I am currently studying at a UK university but hold a non-UK passport?

A: No, you cannot. Non-UK citizens may be able to apply for the scholarship via the Taipei Representative Office in the capital city of their country of citizenship. Those who are unsure how to locate the appropriate office should contact the Scholarships Office: taiwanscholarship@mail.moe.gov.tw

Q: Can I apply if I have not studied Mandarin formally at a university?

A: Yes, you are eligible to apply. However, please note that recipients of the nine-month scholarship are required to sit the Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL) at Band B or higher during their period of study. Passing TOCFL is not necessary. Nevertheless, failure to provide proof of having attended the exam at Band B or higher will result in the withdrawal of one month's stipend. Nine-month scholarship awardees are required to submit their TOCFL results one month prior the end of their scholarship.

Where to submit my application

Q: How do I send my application?

A: Please see 'BACS Notes for Applicants'

Language centres

Q: Where do I find the information about the Language Centres recognised by the MoE in Taiwan?

A: Please visit the following website for a list of language centres recognised by the MoE in Taiwan: <https://lmit.edu.tw/lc>

Q: Can I apply to more than one recognised language centre?

A: Yes, you can. You only need to provide evidence of your application to one language centre.

Q: Can I apply to a language centre that provides only 10 hours of Mandarin classes per week?

A: No, you will not qualify. The Huayu Enrichment Scholarship administered by BACS is awarded by the Ministry of Education (MoE). For the MoE award, the requirement is for at least 15 hours of classes per week. When you apply to a centre, explain that you are applying for the MoE Huayu Enrichment Scholarship, and request confirmation that their language programme provides 15 hours of classes per week.

Q: Do I need to be admitted to one of the language centres before applying for the scholarship?

A: No. You only need to provide an email confirmation from a recognised language centre acknowledging the receipt of your application.

Q: Do I need to take the TOCFL test?

A: If you have studied Mandarin but have no formal qualifications, you may wish to take TOCFL in order to provide evidence of the standard you have reached.
